

KAMAPUA'A SOLUTION – STIES

Reading the Pigpen cipher letters down the "Pigpen Plans" clues spells the message OH SORRY ALL, NOTHING HERE.

The grid can be filled as shown, nothing that answers in green are entered normally, answers in blue are rotated 90°, answers in red are rotated 180°, and answers in yellow are rotated 270°.

The unused letters spell "alphabetize", which refers to the Kamapua'a's plans, i.e., the Pigpen Plans clues. Alphabetizing these clues reorders their associated cipher letters, and rotating those letters in the same way as their answers are rotated changes them to different cipher letters. In their new order and rotation, these now decode to the message ANOTHER WORD FOR PIGPENS, the answer to which is STIES.
