

Amjad and As'ad - SOLUTION (AMAZINGLY / COMRADELY)

The first names clued on the plot fragments may be paired up as well-known brothers (or, in one case where I goofed, cousins. Thank you, Dukes). The restored clues describe movies (with enumerations given) in which a real movie title has had a letter added to the beginning of one word. The added letters, arranged alphabetically by last names of the brothers, spell the answer words AMAZINGLY and COMRADELY.
